BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Requests that the policemen & officers deputed for duty during the Viceregal visit may be granted special rates of batta (dalli) & that the extra expenditure involved thereby may be met from the special allotment set apart for the Viceregal reception charges.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

1) During the last occasion i.e. Lord Minto's visit in 09 a special rate of 8 a. a. day as per diem was given to constables & Daffedars detailed for special duty.

Police rule 71-09 not read by me. Refer to vide F, section Appendix 7(5) Standing Rules Volume for part upto V the following concessions: -

(1) D. a. to Constables, Daffadars & Serjants at 5 as per diem

(2) D. a. to Jamadars, Hd. Constables & Sub Inspectors at 6 as per diem

(3) Inspectors & Jamadars on duty within their own Dis may be permitted to draw D. a. in addition to h. a. while on special duty.

3) The I. G. proposes that the extra expenditure involved by allowing the above concessions may be met from the allotment made for the Viceregal reception. The letter is silent as to what extra expenditure is likely to be incurred for the purpose. A draft calling for the information is put up. After the receipt of this information Branches V & II will have to be consulted.

SIR,

I have the honour to state that in connection with the ensuing visit of His Excellency the Viceroy to the State, over 2,500 Police Officers and Constables are being mobilized for the efficient management of responsible and onerous duties devolving on the Police Department, under modern circumstances. For this purpose, Police Officers and Constables have been withdrawn from all the Districts and deputed to several centres for special duty, the nature of which perforce deprives them of even ordinary comforts which cannot be had under local conditions and times.

File not readily available Vide 76 S&U Pol 71-04

2. During the visit of His Excellency Lord Minto in 1909, a daily batta of 4 annas per diem was sanctioned to the Constables and Lance Duffedars, which was actually found insufficient. Owing to worse times and dearness of provisions now prevailing (nearly 30 % over what it was then), it is absolutely necessary that special rate of batta of at least 5 annas per diem at 2½ annas per meal for all grades of Duffedars or Sergeants and Constables and 6 annas per diem to Jamedars or Head Constables and all Sub Inspectors whose daily batta is less than 6 annas will have to be sanctioned.

3. In case of Inspectors and Jamedars, daily allowance is exchangeable to horse allowance while they are on duty within their Districts, as per Article 573 of the Mysore Service Regulations; but this rule has to be relaxed as a special case, such Inspectors and

Dear Hiriyannaiya,

With reference to enquiry as to how much it would cost extra for paying enhanced batta to the Police officers and men on special duty in connection with the Visit of His Excellency the Viceroy, please refer to my letter of the 26th June last wherein I have explained how it is not possible to make an estimate in as much as the travelling expenses of the various districts are charged off to the various sub-heads of which no classification is maintained anywhere or in the Comptroller's office.

Considering the present mobilization is a great deal more than on the previous occasions and for much longer periods and over wider areas it is just possible that the rough estimate of Rs.15,000/- referred to in para 4 of my letter referred to above may be exceeded by another Rs.5,000/-

Yours sincerely,
